FOREWORD

We, the Senior Class of Rockwell High School, proudly present this edition of our yearbook, the ROCKET. Here within these pages, is portrayed in pictures our long journey through a never-to-be forgotten year. Here is the spirit, the memories, the little incidents of everyday school life which will live forever in our hearts and in our memories; herein lies our way of life.

We fondly hope that in years to come, these pages will become a lasting reminder of the rapid succession of ever-changing activities, the work we've done, the fun we've had, the friends we've made here at R. H. S.

Dear Friends:

A few bright days in autumn, cold rains and winds in the early winter, sleet, snow and ice; then spring and another year has gone. So our school years have passed. They have slipped pleasantly away. Many friends have been made and many new things learned. Life has its moments of frivolity and merry making, then comes the seriousness of living. Our world has become so complicated that an education is a necessity instead of a luxury. Those who are wise can read the signs of the time and know what they must do. The foolish, as in all ages, will fall by the wayside.

The year 1957-58 will not only go down in history at Rockwell School as a great year, but as a great year in the scientific world. New vistas are open for conquest by the intelligent. Who knows what the future holds for us. Let us prepare ourselves to live a happy and useful life.

Yours truly,

J.W. Puckett

FACULTY....BETWEEN CLASSES

A few teachers contemplate the problems of the day . . . or is it the food they are interested in?

A few minutes of relaxation gives these teachers the strength and courage to finish the rest of the day and students.

ACTIVITIES

By mixing lots of time, energy, hard work, and imagination, the Rocket Staff blended carefully in hope of coming up with a successful yearbook that will bring enjoyment and memories to students and friends of Rockwell School.

In order to produce a yearbook of quality such as those that have preceded it, the staff worked hard on many things. Writing copy, making arrangements for pictures, selling advertisements, and wholesome cooperation by all were used in large proportions in turning out this the 1958 ROCKET.

Those on the annual staff are chosen from the student body and are those that have shown ability and willingness to work and to co-operate. These students share ideas and work together to give the school a yearbook. A faculty member advises and guides the staff.

THE STAFF AT WORK....

The job of working out ideas and suggestions into final plans is the job of these members of the staff. They are left to right: Mrs. Lee, Tommy Dellinger, Carolyn Morgan, and Norma Jean Correll.

In order to compile an annual a great amount of typing must be done. That is the job of these girls: Clara Jane Barringer, Ann Carol Helder- man, Anis Maners, Linda Whitt, Carolyn Cauble, Jo Hoffman, Mary Ida Hodge.

Floyd Sides, Harold Yost, Carolyn Hols- houser, and Wayne Smith, who are our business and advertising managers get together to dis- cuss their work and progress.

Keeping all those pictures together and in the proper place presents a challenging problem for these people. Those working are: Sybil Penninger, Renda Treece, Ruby Basinger, Brenda Small, Rachel Bost, James Barringer, and Katy Puckett.

HI-LIGHTS STAFF

The Hi-Lights Staff is composed of students who give unselfishly of their time and ability to bring to the students what we consider one of the best school papers. The faculty advisor is Mrs. Dorothy Stowe.

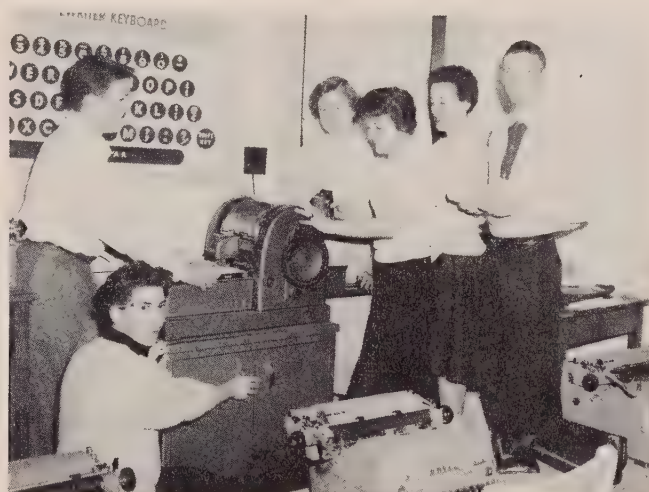

Much credit also must be given to the Hi-Lights staff for their support of the athletic teams and also for their unsurpassed school spirit. They can be justly proud of their ink-stained hands, worn-out pencils and erasers, and broken typewriters.

Those in this group compose the executive branch of the staff. They are shown going over a copy of the "Hi-Lights" with their sponsor, Mrs. Pickney Stowe.

The typists have a very important job on the staff. Their errorless typing is indeed a great help to a speedy delivery of the school paper.

These poor people have the messy job of handling the memiographing of the copy. Although it is a tedious job, these cheerful workers seem to be going about their tasks in a very enthusiastic manner.

Selling advertisements and taking care of the price of the "Hi-Lights" is the job of the business managers, who are shown posing with their faculty advisor, Mrs. Vivian Boyd.

The squeak of a clarinet, the rattle of a drum, the roar of a bass put them all together--plus flutes, saxes, cornets, trombones, and French horns and believe it or not you have music. Music performed by our band at football games, parades, band concerts, band clinics, contests, and heard during 6th period at school everyday. This music which has come to delight the hearts of many was made possible when in February of 1953 the band was organized. Under the direction of Mr. W. C. Lawson, approximately 60 members composed the band. He was called to service in the summer of 1953 and then after having changed directors twice, in the summer of 1955 Mr. Lawson again returned as director. Since then our band has continually improved under his guidance and has become an important part of the school activities.

Mr. Lawson, our band director, is shown seated at his desk surrounded by the Senior Band officers. They are, left to right: Ann Carole Helderman, president; Brantly Park, vice president; Lawrence Misenheimer, quartermaster; Mary Ida Hodge, librarian; Linda Whitt, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Merle Sollinger

The Glee Club which was organized last year has given students a chance to learn about music and enjoy singing. This music has come to play an important part in our school life. The club presented a Christmas pageant which enabled everyone to more fully realize the true significance of Christmas. The Glee Club has also taken part in the talent show, piano recital, P.T.A. meetings, commencement and graduation.

Music is an art of self-expression. The aims of the music teacher are geared according to the God-given talents of the student. The purpose is to explain and illustrate techniques, inspire and encourage the student in his natural talent.

Under the direction of Mrs. Thayer T. Puckett, a fine homecoming program was presented at the half-time of the Troy vs. Rockwell football game. A large crowd attended the game and saw a program entitled, "You Great Big Beautiful Doll". With the help of the grammar grades, the program was a colorful spectacle that accompanied the annual crowning of the homecoming queen who this year was Miss Lena Ketchie. She was escorted by Gary Beaver. The Senior attendants were, Ruby Basinger and William Yates; Junior attendants were, Rachel Bost and R. L. Mills; Sophomore attendants were, Judy Fatata and Gary Hall.

Our Homecoming Queen this year was Miss Lena Ketchie. She is shown being crowned and accompanied by her escort, Gary Beaver.

INVINCIBLE ELEVEN

FIERCE

These four speedy, hard runners scored the majority of the T. D.'s. They put forth all their effort and ability in the games in which they participated. They are, left to right: Jerry Leroy Sides, William Yates, Tommy Dellinger, Wayne Smith.

This shows how rough the line play is. Tommy Dellinger goes across for another touchdown in the Hartsell game.

Mr. Puckett, our principal, promised the coaches a steak dinner if the football team won the championship. Here he is shown joyfully making payment.

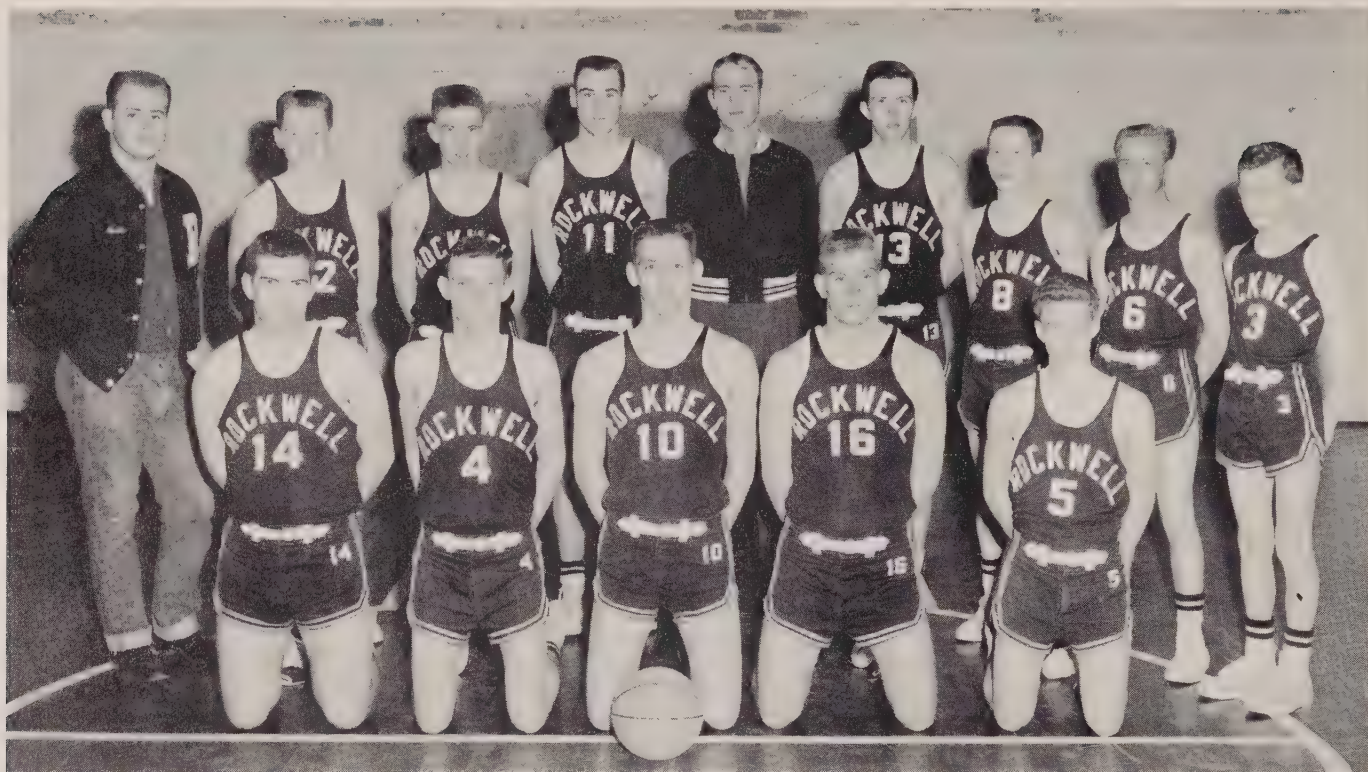

The 1957 Rockets enjoyed the greatest Football season in the history of Rockwell. They were champions of the Granite Belt Conference. They had an impressive 9 and 1 record. This success was highly appreciated by the fans who demonstrated their interest with crowds sometimes exceeding 2,000. The rugged practice could not quench the team's tremendous desires to win in championship form. The high-flying Rockets could not be stopped. Rockwell began its successful season by beating Mount Pleasant. They then rolled over 6 more opponents before the big game with Granite Quarry which would decide the Granite Belt Championship. Rockwell and Granite were tied for the lead in the conference. But Rockwell came out on top with a 20-13 victory. From there, Rockwell advanced to the State Play-Off and beat Stanley 14-7. Then the Rockets met Marshall and defeat; the first time in the season. The team lost by a heart-breaking score of 13-7.

"So long boys." Here are the boys on the chartered bus that took them to Morganton for the game with Marshall in the state playoffs.

"Oh my head!" was what the opposing players said when they ran into the stiff arm of hard running fullback, William Yates. He is shown here exercising his familiar trademark.

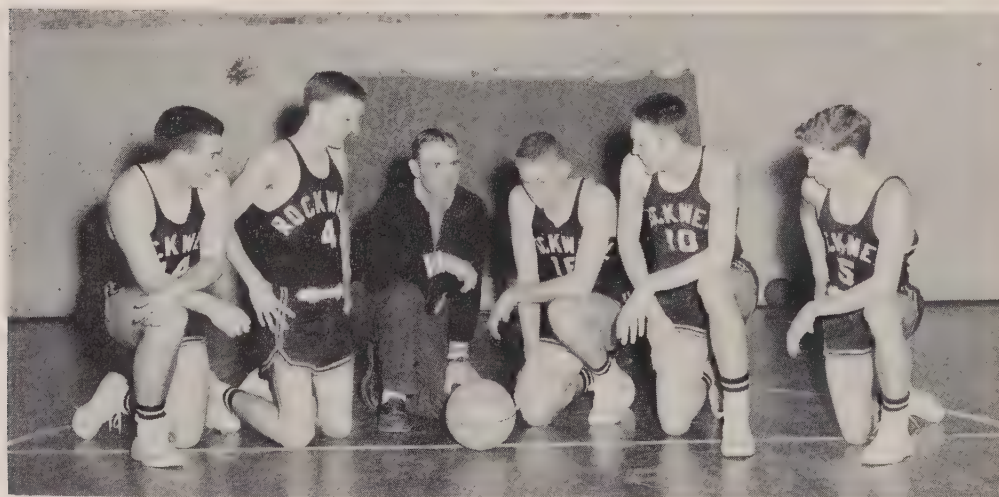

BOYS' BASKETBALL

We, the students, of Rockwell High School should be proud, and justly so, of these boys pictured above. Through their hard work, and hard playing, they have brought to Rockwell High another Conference Championship, this one in basketball. They played hard and clean in upholding the honor of our school. Through their playing they also upheld our reputation of being good sports whether we won or lost. Our conduct after the game with Granite Quarry proved to any doubters that we really can be good sports when we loose to our greatest rivals. So I say again that we can, and should be proud of this, our Varsity Basketball Team.

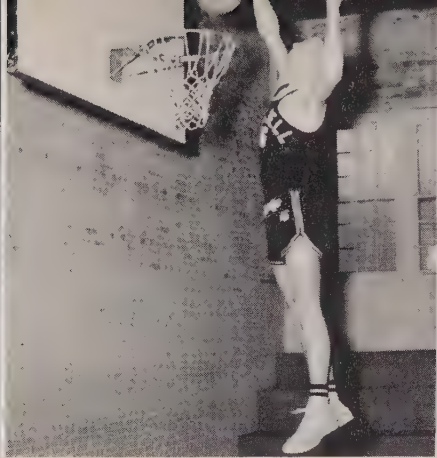

FLAMING FIVE

To these five boys go most of the credit for our tremendous showing this year. They played like a house afire all season and so they have been dubbed the "Flaming Five". They are, Left to Right: Wayne Smith, Guard; Robbie Honeycutt, Forward; Coach, Carl Rudisill; Richard Powlas, Center; Tommy Dellinger, Forward; R. L. Mills, Guard.

VICTORIES IN THE MAKING....

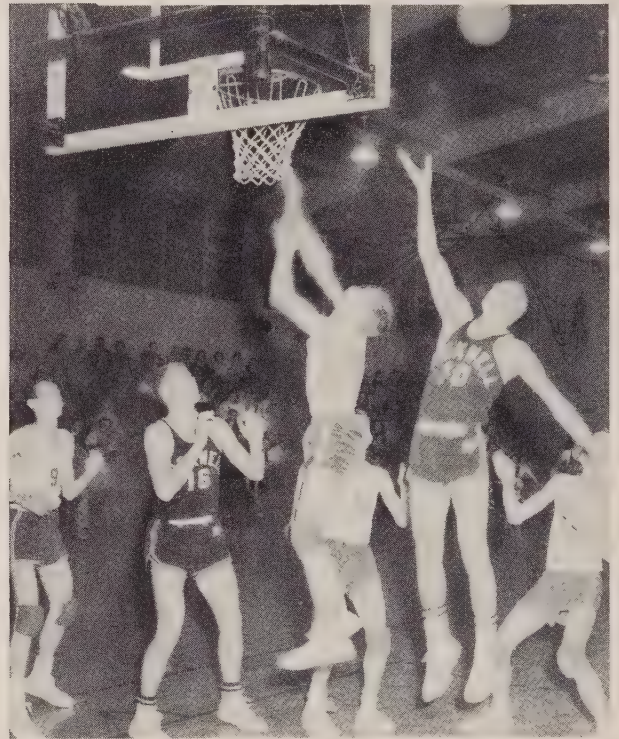

It was high leaps, as shown here, that carried the Rockets to a successful season. In the picture above Wayne Smith jumps high to get the tap on a jump ball.

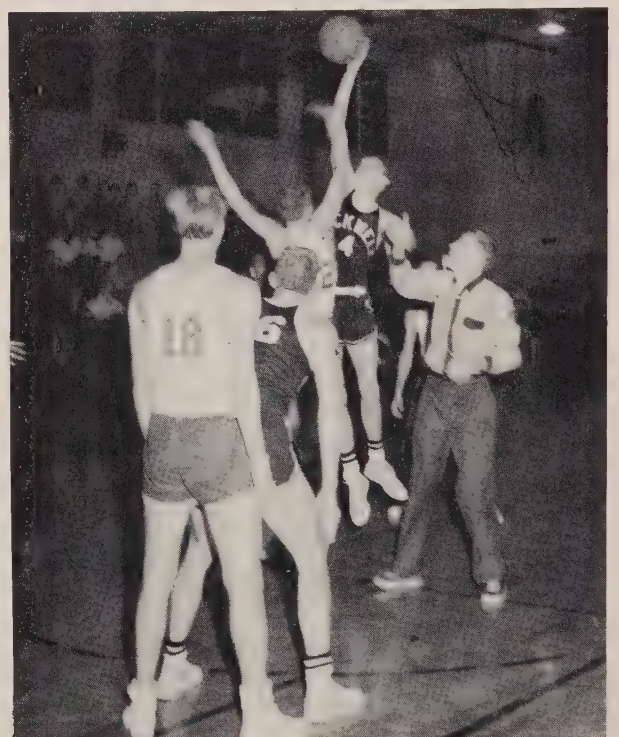

The 1957-1958 Basketball team, not to be out-done by the football team, was also determined to win. They lost only 2 games before the regular season began. They then won 10 straight games. Rockwell entered the County Tournament as the top-seeded team. They beat Cleveland in the first game. The team then played Granite Quarry in the finals, however, the Rockets lost and finished runner-up in the post season tournament.

Since the team was the regular season champion, they advanced to the state play-offs. But they lost the first game and were eliminated. This ended a fine and out-standing season for this year's boys' basketball team.

This action shot pictures our team in a game against Cleveland High School in the County Tournament. The outcome was very favorable as the team came through with a victory. Star forward, Tommy Dellinger, is shown blocking an opponents shot as Richard Powlas, number 16, stands by to lend his assistance.

Robbie Honeycutt is shown about to tap the ball to a team-mate in a hotly contested game during this year's season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

"SIZZLING SIX"

When the girls who had hopes of making the varsity reported for practice in mid-November, they were faced with problems which they quickly overcame with a determination to better their showing of last year. They worked hard to acquire speed and to develop their shooting skill. This they did and they represented our school in such a way as to make us, the student body, proud of them. There are six seniors on the team this year. Four of them were on the starting team and they did an outstanding job. They are; Peggy Drew, Judy Ward, Peggy Haynes, Rachel Earnhardt, Carolyn Morgan, and Norma Jean Barringer.

HOW IT'S DONE....

Norma Jean Barringer watches the ball closely as she reacts to a jump ball in a game in the County Tournament.

Two points are registered on the scoreboard for Rockwell, as Nancy Shue follows through after her shot at the basket.

Judy Ward makes a fine block on an opponents shot and guard, Peggy Haynes, gets ready to gain possession of the ball.

Despite a nice effort to block the shot, Rachel Earnhardt takes a shot at the basket while her team-mates hurry to get into position for the rebound.

BASEBALL '58

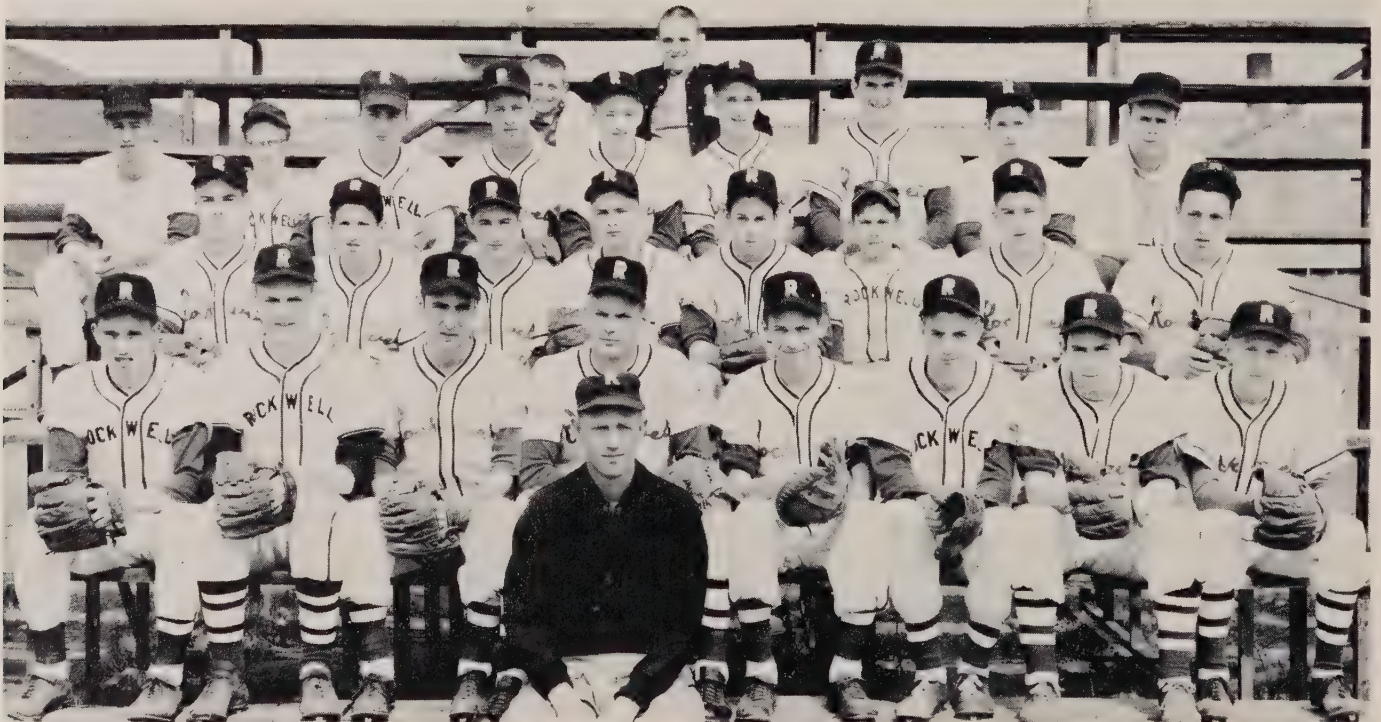

Wayne Smith, our ace pitcher, receives some pitching tips from coach Jerry Pless. Wayne will be counted upon heavily this year to lead the team with his smart and superb pitching, as he showed he could do during the baseball campaign of last year.

Rockwell's Baseball team is looking forward to matching the Football and Basketball team's record. They have the ability to do so, as they have the entire 1957 team returning.

Last year they finished in a tie for 3rd place, and this year, they are aiming for a First-Place position. This will be a very sought-after goal, as a championship in baseball would mean championships in all three major sports for the years 1957-1958.

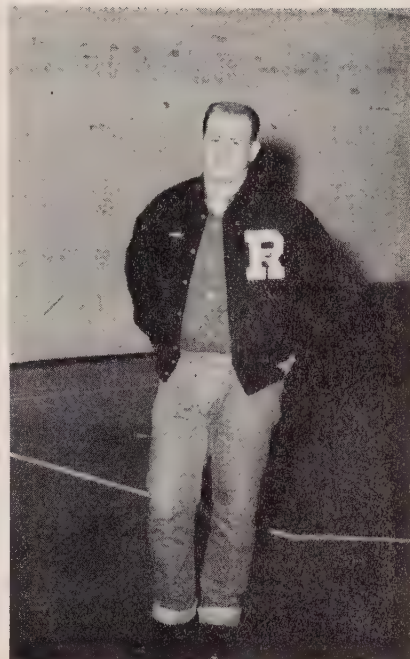

The team is in a very favorable position to accomplish this, and if it shows the same spirit as Rockwell teams have shown in the past year, we are very confident of obtaining this goal.

Managers are a very important part of any athletic team. David Sides has served as baseball manager and basketball manager for the past two years as well as being a star tackle on the football team. He has done his job very well and deserves a pat on the back.

These boys compose the starting outfield on our baseball team. Each of them was a starter on last year's team and they are well experienced. They are pictured left to right: Harold Rinehardt, left field; Johnny Trexler, center field; and Jerry Leroy Sides, right field.

This group represents a very essential part of every team. They are the boys who fight the regulars for their positions and cheer from the bench. To the extreme left with the baseball in his hand is Dwight Morgan, who is counted upon for some fine pitching and heavy hitting.
